“Managing a team in two languages? Reviews shouldn’t get lost in translation.”

What it is

Supera is a bilingual (English/Spanish) performance-review platform for U.S. small businesses. It makes probation reviews, recurring check-ins, anonymous 360° feedback, and goals simple — and produces clear, acknowledged records everyone signs off on, in the language each person speaks.

Who it’s for

U.S. small businesses (under 50 employees) — especially restaurants, hospitality, construction, cleaning, and service companies whose teams don’t all speak the same language.

What makes it different

Every review is understood and acknowledged in each person’s own language and produces a documented, defensible record. Where incumbent tools are English-first and priced for bigger teams, Supera is bilingual from the first screen, radically simple, and affordable — with a free tier for small teams.
